The BOSTON COLLEGE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY invites you to the
THE FOURTH ANNUAL DANIEL J. HARRINGTON, S.J. LECTURE
Basements, Potlucks, and the Orange Line: Listening for God in an Urban Parish

Thursday, April 13, 5:30 - 7:00 p.m. ET

- Presenter: Susan Bigelow Reynolds, assistant professor of Catholic Studies, Candler School of Theology, Emory University and former parishioner of St. Mary of the Angels
- Location: Corcoran Commons, Heights Room, Chestnut Hill Campus (BOSTON COLLEGE)
- Attendance in person or virtually is Free of charge (however you need to register at their website)
- Weaving together stories drawn from years of ministry and ethnographic research in a parish in Boston's Roxbury neighborhood, this lecture reflects on what it means to do theology in community. Lifting up the theological agency of communities on the margins of church and society, it invites us to rethink our understanding of how—and where—the work of theology unfolds.

Nuestras Parroquias en Colaboración

¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección!

“¡He visto la tumba vacía de Cristo vivo y la gloria de su resurrección!” Estas serían las palabras de María Magdalena cuando le preguntaran “María, ¿qué has visto en el camino?”

La Pascua que celebramos es una invitación de parte de Dios a creer y experimentar personalmente la victoria de su Hijo Jesucristo sobre la muerte, el mal y el pecado, de manera que vivamos nuestros días sin miedo y confiados en su protección.

Como párroco de ustedes, les invito a confiar profundamente en el Señor, que viene a nuestro encuentro en esta Pascua a sacarnos de nuestras tumbas, y a ayudarnos a caminar con fe e ilusión.

Es un verdadero milagro que podamos celebrar esta Pascua en nuestra colaborativa, y que las puertas de las tres parroquias se abran cada día para que podamos acoger a nuestros hermanos y hermanas y celebrar juntos nuestra fe en el Resucitado. Bendigo al Señor por el apoyo que hemos recibido el pasado año de tantas y tantas personas que, venciendo sus miedos y recelos, han contribuido con su presencia y con sus bienes a que nuestra misión continúe. Como la Magdalena, sin mirar al pasado pecador de cada uno de nosotros, convencidos de la misericordia de Dios con nosotros, nos lanzamos hacia lo que está por delante, a la misión que nos ha sido encomendada, que es decir a todos: “¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡La tumba está vacía! El Señor resucitado tiene poder para cambiar nuestras vidas y dar sentido a todo lo que nos está pasando, de manera que ahora podamos seguirlo sabiendo que él está con nosotros siempre.” Dios nos encomienda esta misión: ser una comunidad que se reúne y acoge, y al mismo tiempo es misionera y sale en busca de la oveja perdida. Imagínense cuántas personas están hoy esperando a que nosotros los cristianos vayamos y les anunciemos esa Buena Noticia con el ejemplo de nuestras vidas. Celebrar juntos la Resurrección y reunirnos en comunidad, en el Templo, es una manera maravillosa de combatir el miedo que todavía algunos (¡muy pocos) tienen y que los mantiene aislados, sin poder celebrar nada, antes bien, preocupados por defender esta vida mortal que acaba cuando Dios lo tenga ya decidido para cada uno de nosotros. Pero el Cristiano que cree en la Resurrección, sabe que la última palabra no la tiene ni el virus ni la ciencia; la última palabra es la Resurrección que estamos hoy celebrando y que llena de alegría a la Iglesia.

Dios eligió a la Magdalena para que fuera su testigo el día más importante de la Historia de la humanidad: el Día de la Resurrección de su Hijo. No era ella, a los ojos humanos, la persona quizás más indicada para esa misión; pero es que es así donde se ve la potencia de la misericordia de Dios, que nos llama a seguirlo y a ver con nuestros propios ojos su amor gratuito y fiel. Esperamos que estos 50 días de Pascua sirvan para que nuestros corazones se llenen de la esperanza de la vida eterna.

¡Buena Pascua a todos y Buena Misión!

SUPPORT OUR PRIESTS THIS EASTER

Your gift helps care for the health and well-being of priests in good standing.

Today's collection will benefit the Clergy Trust which provides programs and support to care for the health and well-being of all active and senior diocesan priests in good standing. We can tell you firsthand that knowing we have the support of the Clergy Trust allows our priests to focus more of their attention on serving God and His people. If you would like to make a donation, please go online to make it: either do so by scanning the QR code in the bulletin or by visiting clergytrust.org. You can also take one of the envelopes from the back of the Church to bring home and send in later. Thank you so much for your generosity.

La colecta de hoy beneficiará a la Fundación del Clero, que proporciona programas y apoyo para cuidar la salud y el bienestar de todos los sacerdotes diocesanos activos y mayores de buen prestigio. Podemos decirles que para nuestros sacerdotes es muy importante contar con el apoyo de la Fundación del Clero para que les permita enfocar más su atención en servir a Dios y a Su pueblo. Si desea conectarse en línea para hacer su donación, escanee el código QR en el boletín o visite clergytrust.org. También puede tomar uno de los sobres de la parte posterior de la Iglesia para llevarlo a casa y enviarlo después. Muchas gracias por su generosidad.

Our Collaborative Parishes

Happy Easter!

"I have seen the empty tomb of the living Christ and the glory of his resurrection!" These would be the words of Mary Magdalene when asked "Mary, what have you seen on the way?"

This Easter that we are celebrating is an invitation from God to personally believe and experience the victory of his Son Jesus Christ over death, evil and sin, so that we may live our days without fear and confident in his protection.

As your pastor, I invite you to trust deeply in the Lord, who comes to meet us this Easter to bring us out of our graves, and to help us walk with faith and hope.

It is a true miracle that we can celebrate this Easter in our collaborative, and that the doors of our three parishes open every day so that we can welcome our brothers and sisters and celebrate together our faith in the Risen One. I bless the Lord for the support we have received last year from so many people who, overcoming their fears and hesitations, have contributed with their presence and their goods to our mission to continue. Like the Magdalene, without looking at the sinful past of each one of us, convinced of God's mercy towards us, we launch ourselves towards what lies ahead, towards the mission that has been entrusted to us, which is to say to all "Christ is risen! The tomb is empty! The risen Lord has the power to change our lives and give meaning to everything that is happening to us, so that now we can follow him knowing that he is with us always." God entrusts us with this mission: to be a community that meets and welcomes, and at the same time is missionary and goes out in search of the lost sheep. Imagine how many people are waiting today for us Christians to come and announce this Good News with the example of our lives. Celebrating the Resurrection together and meeting in community, in the Temple, is a wonderful way to combat the fear that still some (very few!) have and that keeps them isolated, unable to celebrate anything, rather, concerned with defending this mortal life that ends when God does have already decided for each of us. But the Christian who believes in the Resurrection knows that neither the virus nor science have the last word; the last word is the Resurrection that we are celebrating today and that fills the Church with joy.

God chose the Magdalene to be his witness on the most important day in the history of mankind: the Day of the Resurrection of his Son. She was not, in human eyes, perhaps the most suitable person for that mission; but this is where the power of God's mercy is seen, that He calls us to follow him and to see with our own eyes his gratuitous, faithful love.

We hope that these 50 days of Easter will serve to fill our hearts with the hope of eternal life.

Good Easter to everyone and Good Mission!
