Winter Walk 2026 will take place in Boston Common on Sunday, February 8, at 10 am. Winter Walk is a collective effort to raise funds and awareness to end homelessness. The day includes a 2-mile walk around the Common and speakers who will share lived experiences of homelessness. Refreshments (cocoa and coffee) are promised along with the camaraderie of the walk.

This year's primary beneficiary is long-time IVC partner Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP). ISP provides the retreats and ongoing spiritual community that help people encounter God's love, hope, and healing. IVC New England is one of several Jesuit partner agencies co-sponsoring this year's event. St. Mary of the Angels regularly hosts ISP women's retreats in our parish house.

Last year, Capuchin Mobile Ministries was a lead beneficiary from Winter Walk. It is possible to make a donation to Capuchin Mobile Ministries through Winter Walk also. Many St. Mary of the Angels parishioners assist Brother Paul Fesefeldt, our choir director, with his work through sandwich-making and van presence.

To register here for Winter Walk and join the event as a walker or a financial supporter: Donation for Winter Walk 2026 Boston, or check out the Winter Walk website: <https://winterwalk.org>.
