It's difficult at times to appreciate just how much God loves us. We can only think in the narrow, limited view of human weakness where love can be conditional or selfish or withheld. But there is nothing fake or artificial about the love that Jesus offers. It is a love that is unconditional, forgiving, healing and life-giving. He gives it freely and willingly, proving His love for us on the cross. He patiently waits for us to say yes, to accept His gift and to love Him in return.

Jesus portrays Himself as the Good Shepherd, one who lays down his life for his sheep. He will never leave us, or give up on us, or abandon us. Nothing can change the fact that God calls us His children. We share forever in the grace and glory of God, who creates us in His own image and gives us His life. Through Him, we are healed, forgiven and saved. We are loved just as we are, imperfect though we may be. Could God do more to prove He loves us?

A veces es difícil apreciar cuánto nos ama Dios. Solo podemos pensar en la visión estrecha y limitada de la debilidad humana, donde el amor puede ser condicional, egoísta o retenido. Pero no hay nada falso o artificial en el amor que ofrece Jesús. Es un amor incondicional, perdonador, sanador y vivificante. Él lo da libre y voluntariamente, demostrando su amor por nosotros en la cruz. Él espera pacientemente que digamos que sí, que aceptemos Su regalo y lo amemos de regreso.

Jesús se presenta a sí mismo como el Buen Pastor, uno que da la vida por sus ovejas. Él nunca nos dejará, ni se rendirá, ni nos abandonará. Nada puede cambiar el hecho de que Dios nos llama Sus hijos. Compartimos para siempre la gracia y la gloria de Dios, quien nos crea a Su propia imagen y nos da Su vida. A través de Él, somos sanados, perdonados y salvos. Somos amados tal como somos, por imperfectos que seamos. ¿Podría Dios hacer más para demostrar que nos ama?

From Pastor

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Llegamos al Domingo del Buen Pastor, Domingo Cuarto de la Pascua. Hoy la palabra está especialmente dirigida a mí, que soy su pastor. Me hace examinar mis actitudes: si conozco a mis fieles, si les estoy cercano, si me intereso por todos, si me dedico a su cuidado, dispuesto a sacrificar mi tiempo y mis fuerzas. También me recuerda la importancia de que yo tenga espíritu misionero, y que no solo trate bien y alimemente a las personas que ya vienen a las parroquias, sino que trate de buscar a las alejadas y cuando las encuentre, que las trate igualmente bien.

Se pueden hacer muchas cosas en las parroquias en nombre del Resucitado para cumplir esta misión, que no es solo mía, sino también del Padre Andrea, del personal de las parroquias, de los miembros de los consejos pastorales y de finanzas, y de los muchos voluntarios que en nuestras comunidades tratan de ser evangelizadores y comunicadores de la Buena Noticia.

Una de las iniciativas que desde varios años he apoyado para que podamos anunciar el evangelio, especialmente a las personas mas alejadas de la fe, es el Camino Neocatecumenal. El Camino siempre se comienza escuchando unas catequesis que se dan durante varias semanas y que son una llamada de Dios a experimentar su amor gratuito, y a iniciar un proceso de conversión y de enriquecimiento en la fe cristiana. Comenzamos estas charlas mañana Lunes 26 de Abril, en la parroquia de Sto. Tomás de Aquino. Les animo a dejarse quiar por la palabra del Maestro, el Pastor Bueno que ha dado la vida por nosotros, y que quiere que lo conozcamos personalmente. Les esperamos. Vengan y escuchen. Escuchar la Buena Noticia es la mejor vacuna antes el virus del miedo, la ansiedad, las crisis personales y la incertumbre por el futuro. ¡Y es 100% eficaz! Déjate vacunar por el Espíritu Santo que quiere destruye el poder del mal y del pecado en nosotros para ayudarnos a vivir con esperanza en estos tiempos difíciles.

P. Carlos.

Dear brothers and sisters,

We are on Good Shepherd Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Easter. Today the word is especially addressed to me, who am your pastor. It makes me examine my attitudes: if I know my parishioners, if I am close to them, if I am interested in everyone, if I dedicate myself to their care, willing to sacrifice my time and my strength. It also reminds me of how important is for me to have a missionary spirit, and that I may feed and treat well not only those people who already come to the parishes, but also that I may try to look for those who are far away; and when I might find them, that I treat them equally well.

Many things can be done in the parishes in the name of the Risen One to fulfill this mission, which is not only mine, but also that of Father Andrea, the staff of the parishes, the members of the pastoral and financial councils, and the many volunteers who in our communities try to be evangelizers and communicators of the Good News.

One of the initiatives that for several years I have supported so that we can announce the gospel, especially to people furthest from the faith, is the Neocatechumenal Way. The Way always begins by listening to catechesis that are given over several weeks and that are a call from God to experience his gratuitous love, and to start a process of conversion and enrichment in the Christian faith. We begin these talks tomorrow, Monday April 26, in the parish of St. Thomas Aquinas. I encourage you to let yourself be guided by the word of the Master, the Good Shepherd who has given his life for us, and who wants us to know him personally. We wait for you. Come and listen. Hearing the Good News is the best vaccine against the virus of fear, anxiety, personal crises and uncertainty about the future. And it is 100% effective! Let yourself be vaccinated by the Holy Spirit who wants to destroy the power of evil and sin in us to help us live with hope in these difficult times. Fr. Carlos.
