Domingo de la Divina Misericordia (11 de abril): Jesús, en ti confío

Happy Easter! Feliz Pascua de Resurrección!

“¡He visto la tumba vacía de Cristo vivo y la gloria de su resurrección!” Estas serían las palabras de María Magdalena cuando le preguntaran “María, ¿qué has visto en el camino?”

Espero de todo corazón que en el camino de nuestras vidas, marcadas en el año pasado por las dificultades y retos que ha conllevoado la pandemia del coronavirus, nosotros también podamos ver una luz que nos ayude a alegrarnos y a retomar la esperanza. La Pascua que celebramos es una invitación de parte de Dios a creer y experimentar personalmente la victoria de su Hijo Jesucristo sobre la muerte, el mal y el pecado, de manera que vivamos nuestros días sin miedo y confiados en su protección.

Como párroco de ustedes, les invito a confiar profundamente en el Señor, que viene a nuestro encuentro en esta Pascua a sacarnos de nuestras tumbas, y a ayudarnos a caminar con fe e ilusión.

Es un verdadero milagro que podamos celebrar esta Pascua en nuestra colaborativa, y que las puertas de las tres parroquias se abran cada día para que podamos acoger a nuestros hermanos y hermanas y celebrar juntos nuestra fe en el Resucitado. Bendigo al Señor por el apoyo que hemos recibido el pasado año de tantas y tantas personas que, venciendo sus miedos y recelos, han contribuido con su presencia y con sus bienes a que nuestra misión continúe. Como la Magdalena, sin mirar al pasado pecador de cada uno de nosotros, convencidos de la misericordia de Dios con nosotros, nos lanzamos hacia lo que está por delante, a la misión que nos ha sido encomendada, que es decir a todos: “¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡La tumba está vacía! El Señor resucitado tiene poder para cambiar nuestras vidas y dar sentido a todo lo que nos está pasando, de manera que ahora podamos seguirlo sabiendo que él está con nosotros siempre.” Dios nos encomienda esta misión: ser una comunidad que se reúne y acoge, y al mismo tiempo es misionera y sale en busca de la oveja perdida. Imagínense cuántas personas están hoy esperando a que nosotros los cristianos vayamos y les anunciamos esa Buena Noticia con el ejemplo de nuestras vidas. Celebrar juntos la Resurrección y reunirnos en comunidad, en el Templo, es una manera maravillosa de combatir el miedo que todavía muchos tienen y que los mantiene aislados, sin poder celebrar nada, antes bien, preocupados por defender esta vida mortal que acaba cuando Dios lo tenga ya decidido para cada uno de nosotros. Pero el Cristiano que cree en la Resurrección, sabe que la última palabra no la tiene ni el virus ni la ciencia; la última palabra es la Resurrección que estamos hoy celebrando y que llena de alegría a la Iglesia.

Dios eligió a la Magdalena para que fuera su testigo el día más importante de la Historia de la humanidad: el Día de la Resurrección de su Hijo. No era ella, a los ojos humanos, la persona quizás más indicada para esa misión; pero es que es así donde se ve la potencia de la misericordia de Dios, que nos llama a seguirlo y a ver con nuestros propios ojos su amor gratuito y fiel.

Esperamos que estos 50 días de Pascua sirvan para que nuestros corazones se llenen de la esperanza de la vida eterna.

¡Buena Pascua a todos y Buena Misión!

"I have seen the empty tomb of the living Christ and the glory of his resurrection!" These would be the words of Mary Magdalene when asked "Mary, what have you seen on the way?"

I hope with all my heart that on the path of our lives, marked in the past year by the difficulties and challenges that the coronavirus pandemic has brought, we too can see a light that helps us rejoice and regain hope. This Easter that we are celebrating is an invitation from God to personally believe and experience the victory of his Son Jesus Christ over death, evil and sin, so that we may live our days without fear and confident in his protection.

As your pastor, I invite you to trust deeply in the Lord, who comes to meet us this Easter to bring us out of our graves, and to help us walk with faith and hope.

It is a true miracle that we can celebrate this Easter in our collaborative, and that the doors of our three parishes open every day so that we can welcome our brothers and sisters and celebrate together our faith in the Risen One. I bless the Lord for the support we have received last year from so many people who, overcoming their fears and hesitations, have contributed with their presence and their goods to our mission to continue. Like the Magdalene, without looking at the sinful past of each one of us, convinced of God's mercy towards us, we launch ourselves towards what lies ahead, towards the mission that has been entrusted to us, which is to say to all “Christ is risen! The tomb is empty! The risen Lord has the power to change our lives and give meaning to everything that is happening to us, so that now we can follow him knowing that he is with us always.” God entrusts us with this mission: to be a community that meets and welcomes, and at the same time is missionary and goes out in search of the lost sheep. Imagine how many people are waiting today for us Christians to come and announce this Good News with the example of our lives. Celebrating the Resurrection together and meeting in community, in the Temple, is a wonderful way to combat the fear that many still have and that keeps them isolated, unable to celebrate anything, rather, concerned with defending this mortal life that ends when God does have already decided for each of us. But the Christian who believes in the Resurrection knows that neither the virus nor science have the last word; the last word is the Resurrection that we are celebrating today and that fills the Church with joy.

God chose the Magdalene to be his witness on the most important day in the history of mankind: the Day of the Resurrection of his Son. She was not, in human eyes, perhaps the most suitable person for that mission; but this is where the power of God's mercy is seen, that He calls us to follow him and to see with our own eyes his gratuitous, faithful love.

We hope that these 50 days of Easter will serve to fill our hearts with the hope of eternal life.

Good Easter to everyone and Good Mission!

worked to be more patient, continue to practice patience. If our goal was to pray more often, set the time aside that you need. If the purpose of our Lenten practice was to make us healthier, holier, or happier, don't stop! We share in the Lord's victory over sin and death in small ways, conquering our own faults and failings with God's grace. Keep the momentum of Lent throughout Easter so that the pain and struggle of your sacrifice will bring you the joy of renewal.

Easter is a time of renewal and hope. Jesus did not die and rise for Himself. He did it for us so that we can share in His victory and in His life forever. One way we can celebrate is practice a little renewal in our own lives. Lent ends, but the results of our sacrifice and penance should remain. If we

~James Gaffney, St. George Publishing

La Pascua es un tiempo de renovación y esperanza. Jesús no murió y resucitó por sí mismo. Lo hizo por nosotros para que podamos compartir Su victoria y Su vida para siempre. Una forma en que podemos celebrarlo es practicar un poco de renovación en nuestras propias vidas. La Cuaresma termina, pero los resultados de nuestro sacrificio y penitencia deben permanecer. Si trabajamos para ser más pacientes, continúe practicando la paciencia. Si nuestro objetivo era orar con más frecuencia, reserve el tiempo que necesite. Si el propósito de nuestra práctica de Cuaresma era hacernos más saludables, más santos o más felices, ¡no te detengas! Compartimos la victoria del Señor sobre el pecado y la muerte en pequeñas formas, conquistando nuestras propias faltas y fallas con la gracia de Dios. Mantén el impulso de la Cuaresma durante toda la Pascua para que el dolor y la lucha de tu sacrificio te traigan la alegría de la renovación.
